

Identify different types of nodes in a DOM model and retrieve them.

1. Take a HTML document with different elements and comments and text.
2. Get the nodes present in the document.
3. Identify the relationships between each and every node.